Request for 20 minute time slot. At NEILS11, the schedule will again include a mix of 20 minute and 30 minute slots for presentations. Generally, the Program Committee gives 30 minute slots to those papers that appear to require, and benefit from, more time for presentation and discussion, based on the submitted abstract. However, those participants who prefer and feel more comfortable with a 20 minute slot and do not want a 30 minute slot should check the box.

Abstract. Upload your abstract. Ideally, this should be a PDF document but if need be, DOC, DOCX, or ODT documents are also acceptable. Please write your abstract using Times New Roman, 12pt. In the first line(s), give the full title of your paper; below it give your name and affiliation (e.g., [Stephen Morey (La Trobe University)]; below it leave one line empty; and below that, give the abstract, followed by references, if any. Examples/tables/figures should be inserted where discussed, rather than at the end of the abstract.
